FESTIVAL AT MILL CREEK CHURCH .-The festival for the benefit of Mill Creek Church at Glen Cliff, takes place at the church to-night. There will be a concert, tableaux, and an ice cream and strawberry upper. A special train has been provided for the occasion, and will leave the city at quarter to 7 o'clock, returning at the e of the entertainment. So every one in Nashville who wishes to participate in he evening's enjoyment can do so without outting himself to any inconvenience. We mope to see the wain crowded.

BARGE SAVED .- We made mention last week of the sinking of a barge belonging o the Poplar Mountain Coal Company by he steamer Tempest. The I. N. Phillips, he company's boat, went down the river Saturday, to the place where the barge was sunk, succeeded in raising, and returned with it to this port. The freight, we understand, was all saved.

PORK GONE DOWN .- On Sunday the spruce street car, which, by the way, is no poke-ing institution, came in contact with a pork hog. The hog was seriously crip pled, but was able to poke off, when a kindpearted man who wished to relieve it from ts pain, poked a knife into its throat and eft it for the first hungry passer-by to convert into pork.

PICKPOCKETS .- At the depot of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, on Saturday evening last, Maj. A. J. Donelson had his pockets picked by the experts who congregate there. They got his pocket book containing about $450 in meney, and ome valuable promissory notes and recipts. The Major had a couple of ladies der his charge at the time, and the pickpockeis took advantage of his attention to them, to pay their attentions to him.

THE German festival at Ruemekorf's Garden vesterday, was participated in by a arge number of our German friends, with their families. The day was a very fine one and all enjoyed themselves. Some of the shart-shooters did good practice, and claim to have done the best shooting ever made on the grounds. But we have not the figures to substantiate the claim. The lads and lassies had a delightful time dancing, and, we doubt not, regretted that the day was not longer. But they can have other days, and we hope many of

A VIOLENT assault was made Saturday night at the Climax Saloon, by John Barkhodl, one of the proprietors of the establishment, on Mr. Wm. Mr Harrison, who is small man, and generally good-natured and inoffensive, was so badly beaten that he has been unable to be out since, Barkhodl is a much larger man and used as a weapon a species of mallet used for opening bier harrels. The case was up before Recorder Foster yesterday, t was continued, Harrison being

THE funeral of Mollie May, one of the frail sisterhood," who died Sunday, took place yesterday afternoon. The procession was large, and composed of the poor, bedizened creatures of her class. Upon inquiry, we learned that the deceased came to this city in 1862 or '63, as a private soldier in a regiment from Ohio, and her sex having been discovered, she was discharged. Entering upon the career of a prostitute, by adroit management she suceeded in accumulating money, and purchased property. At one time it was upposed she was worth at least $30,000, But she became intemperate, sunk her means rapidly, destroyed her health, and lied a wretched inebriate.

MULLINS AT WINCHESTER.-We learn from a gentleman of this city who was at Winchester, Saturday, that Mullins made a speech there that day. He had a large crowd of negroes and a few whites to hear him. His speech was characteristic of Mullins; a compound of nonsense and impudence. But the fellow ventured to make a charge against Col. A. S. Colvar, reflectng upon his honor as a gentleman. The Colonel was not present, being here in Nashville, but his friend Col, Marks, who was in Winchester, hearing of the charge, proceeded to the place of speaking and, conronting Mullins, compelled him to withdraw it. The poor devil ate his words with the best relish he could.

THE HOME MONTHLY,-The table of ontents of this monthly for June presents variety of interesting subjects, many o which are sketched with a masterly hand The scathing review of " Dr. Draper's Civil Policy in America," by Rev. J. Ditzler, is an article full of profound thought, and exhibits in a high degree the analytical powers of the reviewer. "Moins," the sweet minstrel of the South, whose every iote is as soft as vesper chimes, warbles or in this number "A prayer for the South, as sweet as the flowers which bloom on the graves of buried love. THE HOLLYWOOD BAZAAR .- At this peautiful festival in the city of Richmond, each one of the late Confederate States had a table, presided over by ladies from the respective States. Even Delaware and Maryland had a table, wreathed with evergreens and decorated with a thousand hings both useful and ornamental.

The Mississippi table had an arch suspended representing the shield of the State, under which floated the battle flag of the 'Lamar rifles," on which was inscribed the motto of the State, "Always ready. The Missouri table displayed a flag which a Confederate soldier carried through the war, it being the only one which the Federals did not capture at Fort Jackson n 1861. The Tennessee table had a beautiful arch of white roses and evergreens. The shield of the State with its suggestive mottos, "Industry," "Commerce and "Agriculture," hung over the table The Tennessee table was under the charge of Mrs. Geo. Gwathmey and Mrs. Hart-

MATTERS AND THINGS IN LOGAN COUNry, Ky.-We have received a letter from a friend at Russellville, dated the 17th inst., giving us some items of information touching that section of Kentucky. He tells us that he has made particular inquiry of farmers from different parts of the county in regard to the damage done the wheat crop by the late frost, and the universal reply was that it sustained no injury, and that the promise of an abundant harvest was never better. Corn was slightly injured, out has recovered, and is growing finely.

In the Circuit Court, last week, Jim Da ris and Bill Lewis, colored, were tried for obbery. The latter was convicted in two cases, and sentenced to the penitentiary for ighteen years; first, for robbing the depot of the Memphis branch of the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Russellville, las winter, the arrest of whom was noticed in he Union and Dispatch a short time ago; and secondly, for robbing the gate-keeper of the Russellville and Nashville urnpike-ten years in the one and eight n the other case. The jury disagreed in the case of his accomplice, Davis. Our orrespondent adds: Lewis, on the rendering of the verdict of he jury, and the passing of sentence by the Judge, made an open confession that he robbed the safe and drawer at the raiload depot, implicating three others, Scott Edwards, Ernest Edwards and Rice Davis, all colored. The parties had been pre viously arrested upon suspicion, and were in jail. Lewis, besides the eighteen years hat he is already sentenced for, is to be tried upon eight more indictments found by the grand jury against him. There are twelve colored men, includir hose already mentioned above, confined in ail here, charged with the commission of various crimes, some of which are so hidous and revolting in their character that I dare not make mention of them. By the arrest of the man Lewis, who seems to b the ringleader, the whole party now is lurance vile have been brought to justice, and a net-work of rascality and crime be ing unraveled that is truly appalling in its character. The perpetrators of crime of y character and degree, extending far back as four or five months, have, in a large majority of cases, gone unwhipped of justice because they could not be found out: but now it is fair to presume that the re-ward so justly due the guilty is about to be meted out to them. That a regular or-ganized band existed, whose business it was o murder, burn and rob, and commit rape, throughout the county, there exists not a doubt in the minds of the people of this community. In addition to this organized band, there are also confined in jail here two others-Green and Hendrick-white men, upon the charge of murder, whose case will next occupy the attention of the

The Supreme Court of the United States rendered a decision on the 16th inst. sustaining the legal tender act. A mercantile firm in Washington claimed to have made a special deposit in gold with Riggs & Co., bankers, prior to the legal-tender act. Sub sequent to its passage the defendants declined to pay in kind, but made tender of treasury notes, which the plaintiffs refused to accept, and brought their action to compel payment in gold in order to show, or the trial, a special contract to pay in gold Evidence was offered of an arrangement made, generally, in the District of Columbia, where the action was brought, between the defendants and their bankers at the time gold commenced rising to a premium by which deposits were to be paid in kind. This evidence was excluded, and the legal tender act being held constitutional, judg ment was given for the depositors. The case was appealed. Justice Clifford read the opinion of the court, affirming the judg ment below, holding that the evidence of fered was properly excluded, as the judgment below was that the legal tender act was constitutional. This affirmance is equivalent to a direct finding in the case by the Supreme Court, to that effect, although the question is not discussed fur ther than to say that the deposit was payable in legal money of the United States,
